

STOLEN

On February 6th, someone stole Wyn Painter's 2002 Charcoal Gray Suburban with many blue totes full of stoneware items he had loaded up to bring to the Red Wing Mid Winter gathering in Des Moines. There were dozens of items that he had produced in his Pottery and were ready for sale and delivery. Most of the items carried the W. A. Painter Pottery Works label on the side and all were stamped with his company name on the bottom. The items stolen were similar to those pictured above.

Included in the loss were: Mini Jugs, Banks, Vases, Butter Tubs, Barrels, Shoulder Jugs, Figural Pieces, Bailed Jugs, Toothpick Holders, Business Card holders, and many other pieces, all marked with W. A. Painter Pottery Works on them.

If you should be approached by anyone trying to sell these items in quantity, please contact Wyn Painter who can determine if the items were those that were stolen, or contact the Overland Park, KS. Police who are handling the investigation. The Overland Park Police Dept. is 913-895-6300 and refer to report #2010002504. Wyn's home phone number is 913-642-5299, and cell phone number is 816-807-7340.
