

2012 CONVENTION DISPLAYS

RWCS Convention attendees were treated to some fantastic displays in 2012. We appreciate the work and creativity of everyone who displayed and volunteered – their efforts made this year’s Display Room hard to top.

We’d also like to thank Todd Avery, who brought in an incredible panoramic photo of the city of Red Wing as a non-competitive display. Todd acquired the original early 1900s photo at an estate auction in Red Wing and had it blown up to a monstrous 22 inches by 11 feet! He plans to share close-up

As always, we thank Stacy Wegner and the RWCS Board of Directors for its dedication and support and Red Wing High School Custodial Staff members for their help. We also thank everyone who spoke to us about doing a display next year. We’ll be in touch!
