

Red Wing Stoneware Ovals

This is the believed to be the 1st Oval used by Red. This mark was probably placed on Red Wing Stoneware between 1909 and 1915.

This mark was probably placed on Red Wing Stoneware between 1909 and 1915.

This mark was probably placed on Red Wing Stoneware between 1917 and 1918.

This mark was probably placed on Red Wing Stoneware between 1917 and 1918.

Called a "Standard Oval", this mark dates to the 1930's. Red Wing Potters and Their Wares pictures this on page 146. Slight variant of this #7 in included to the right.

Here's a (very subtle) variant of the "Standard" #7 oval. Notice the left side of the top horizontal line extends to just under the "R" in "Red Wing". In the #7 pictured right the same line extends only to the middle of the "E" in "Red Wing"; this mark dates to the 1930's.

Known as a "Union" oval.

The #8 oval used in the 1930's.